

Warren Lentz Brewer

Lentz obtained a bachelor's degree in finance from Wofford College and an MBA from UNCW. He began his banking career with Wachovia in 2000. He has worked with Park Sterling Bank as a commercial banker since 2010. Lentz volunteers as a board member of the Cape Fear Council of the Boy Scouts of America and is affiliated with Wilmington Rotary.

Robert Durden

As CEO/CIO of the University of Virginia Investment Management Company, he oversees all operational aspects and is the primary representative to the university, related foundations and the public. He is responsible for investment management of the long-term pool, and oversees asset allocation, portfolio management, risk management and manager selection activities of the investment staff. A graduate of Princeton University with a B.A. in economics, magna cum laude, he holds an MBA in finance and entrepreneurship with honors from the University of Chicago's Booth School of Business.

Michael Kennedy

Formerly serving as Senior Client Partner in the Atlanta office of Korn Ferry, he conducted senior-level investment assignments for pension funds, endowments and foundations. He also served as the Board and Investment Committee Chair at the Georgia Employees Retirement System, and currently serves on the Board of the UNC Management Company. He earned an MBA from Harvard Business School, and a bachelor's degree with highest honors in history and political science from UNC Chapel Hill.

Jamey Spencer

As a Managing Director and shareholder at Pathstone, he is responsible for developing investment strategy, and constructing and managing client investment portfolios. He received a bachelor's degree in business from Wake Forest University, magna cum laude, and an MBA from Harvard Business School.

Dan Ward

A former CIO for the Virginia Tech Foundation, he is currently CIO at Greenhawk Family Office, where he leads investment strategy and portfolio management. Greenhawk is a private investment firm with a focus on real estate investment and development, private equity, venture capital and public equity investments. He received a bachelor's degree from the University of Michigan and an MBA in finance from the University of Florida's Warrington College of Business