IRAN SUBSTANTIAL POSITIVE ACTION EXCEPTION LIST

As of 16, May 2017

Individuals and companies are exempt from the restrictions mandated by North Carolina's Iran Divestment Act if they undertake Substantial Positive Action as defined by that Act. N.C.G.S. 143C-6A-7. That Act requires NCDST to publish the Substantial Positive Action Exception List.

Individuals and Companies below are on the Substantial Positive Action Exception List. As a result, the Iran Divestment Act does not restrict investment or contracting involving these persons in any way.

Company Name
Maire Tecnimont S.p.A.
OMV Aktiengesellschaft

The North Carolina Iran Divestment Act of 2015 indicates that "persons" subject to the Act include not only companies listed as a result of their own apparent investment activities in Iran, as listed above, but also any "majority-owned subunit or subsidiary" of that company. N.C.G.S. 143C-6A-3(6) and 6A-7(b). Subsidiaries of the companies listed on the Iran Substantial Positive Action Exception List are found below. The Iran Divestment Act does not restrict investment or contracting involving these persons in any way.
