

John Aneralla is a graduate of the University of Georgia and has an MBA in management from Hofstra University. He began his career as a financial consultant for E.F. Hutton in 1986. John has consulted for public and private companies in a broad range of industries including aerospace, computer equipment and software, consumer products, manufacturing, medical technology and telecommunications. He served as Vice President at Davidson Capital Corporation and in 2004, he established Bulldog Asset Management, Inc., an investment advisory firm specializing in asset allocation to achieve individual client needs. John is active in his church and civic activities in Mecklenburg County.

Dr. David Hartzell brings valuable experience as a former vice president at Salomon Brothers Inc. in New York, financial economist for the U.S. Office of the Comptroller of Currency, president of the American Real Estate and Urban Economics Association, and years of work on a consulting basis with companies including Heitman Capital Management in Chicago, CB Richard Ellis, Henderson Asset Management (U.K.), PRA Securities, and Prudential Real Estate Investors.

A recipient of the Gerald Barrett Award, Dr. Hartzell teaches courses in real estate and finance, and teaches executives about issues related to capital budgeting and corporate investment decisions. He also serves on the Board of Highwood Properties, Inc. (ticker HIW), a Raleigh-based Real Estate Investment Trust (REIT) with a market capitalization of $4 billion. In this role, he serves on the Investment Committee and the Audit Committee. He received his Ph.D. from UNC-Chapel Hill and his M.A. and B.S. from the University of Delaware.

Steve Jones is a professor of Strategy and Organizational Behavior at UNC Chapel Hill and former Dean of UNC's Kenan-Flagler Business School. Jones currently serves on committees at Progress Energy, Premiere Global Services, Glen Raven Inc. and Bank of America. He has experience working abroad in both Australia and New Zealand. He has been cited as one of "Australia's Top 50 CEOs" by Bulletin magazine, among other high recognitions. Jones received a B.A. in Economics from UNC Chapel Hill and an M.B.A. with distinction from Harvard Business School. He is a dual citizen of the U.S. and Australia.

Michael Mebane is a graduate of North Carolina State University and has an MBA from Wake Forest University. He spent 12 years at Unifi Inc. (NYSE:UFI), an industry leading fiber and yarn manufacturer, rising to Vice President and member of the Executive Committee. He served as Executive in Residence and adjunct professor for the Center of Global Business Research and Education at the University of North Carolina Greensboro. Since 2002, he has enjoyed a diverse consulting practice with engagements spanning diverse industries, nations and circumstances. He is currently managing director of a firm specializing in fixed income investing of funds held in restrictive escrow accounts. Michael lives in Winston-Salem.

Neal F. Triplett joined Duke Management Company in July 1999 and was appointed President in January 2007 (Duke Management Company has since been reorganized as DUMAC, LLC). Triplett started working with public securities and hedged strategies, and eventually oversaw the Hedged Strategies investments. He obtained his M.B.A. from the Fuqua School of Business at Duke University, where he also received his undergraduate degree. Triplett was a credit officer for the corporate and real estate portfolios at Wachovia Bank. He holds the Chartered Financial Analyst designation.