The auditor should not consider the Supplement to be “safe harbor” for identifying audit procedures to apply in a particular engagement, but the auditor should be prepared to justify departures from the suggested procedures. The auditor can consider the supplement a “safe harbor” for identification of compliance requirements to be tested if the auditor performs reasonable procedures to ensure that the requirements in the Supplement are current.

The grantor agency may elect to review audit working papers to determine that audit tests are adequate.

Auditors may request documentation of monitoring visits by the State Agencies.

I. PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

The Clean Water Management Trust Fund (CWMTF) was established by the North Carolina General Assembly in 1996 (Chapter 113A, Article 18 of the North Carolina General Statutes). Up through fiscal year 2000/2001, at the end of each fiscal year 6.5% of the unreserved credit balance in North Carolina’s General Fund or at least $30 million was appropriated for the CWMTF. The 2000 General Assembly appropriated $40 million for fiscal year 2001/2002, and committed to appropriate $70 million for fiscal year 2002/2003, and $100 million per year until fiscal year 2011-2012 when the statutory language was changed removing the commitment of $100 million. The actual appropriation for fiscal year 2013-2014 was $10,426,976. The CWMTF’s primary objective, contained in the enabling legislation, is to enhance and preserve water quality throughout North Carolina. Beginning in FY13/14, the NCGA incorporated the mission and fund balance of the Natural Heritage Trust Fund into the CWMTF. The NHTF provided supplemental funding to select state agencies for the acquisition and protection of important natural areas. A balance of $8,637,212 was transferred to the CWMTF for allocation by the CWMTF Board for eligible projects.

II. PROGRAM PROCEDURES

CWMTF revenues are allocated to help finance projects that specifically address water quality problems or protect natural heritage. The CWMTF’s Board of Trustees (Board) has full discretion and responsibility over the allocation of CWMTF money to grants. However, only North Carolina State agencies, local governments or other political subdivisions of the State, or nonprofit corporations whose primary purpose is the conservation, preservation, and restoration of North Carolina's environmental and natural heritage resources are eligible to apply and receive funding.

The Board and staff have developed an application as the vehicle for prospective recipients to apply for funding. The application deadline for 2014 is April 7. These applications are the primary decision making tool used by the Board to determine a given application's merit for CWMTF funding.

At predetermined times, the Board meets to review applications and/or to conduct other business of the CWMTF. The Board, based on the application's merits, can elect not to fund an application, it can elect to tentatively award all or a portion of the application up to a specific dollar amount (based on further investigation and the execution of a grant agreement), or it can defer the decision pending further information.

Once an application is awarded as a grant, CWMTF staff execute a grant agreement with the grant award recipient. Each party's rights and responsibilities are itemized in the grant agreement.

The CWMTF operates with a limited set of program guidelines. As such, auditors are directed to the CWMTF's above-referenced enabling legislation for guidelines. Auditors are further directed to the grant agreement(s) between the CWMTF and the grantee and, if applicable, conservation easements, for specific direction on all aspects of compliance. An easement is an interest in land owned by another party which gives the easement holder (the State) the right to use the land for a specific purpose. In the case of CWMTF, the landowner's rights to use the property for certain purposes are reduced in order to ensure the conservation values of the property are permanently preserved.
